ATHLETES UNLIMITED SOFTBALL 101

WHO WE ARE

Athletes Unlimited is a new model of professional sports where athletes are decision makers and individual players are champions of team sports. We literally change the game with faster play and fluid teams, delivering next-level competition and engagement in which every moment counts. Athletes Unlimited began in 2020 with Women's Softball and followed with Women's Volleyball (2021), Women's Lacrosse (2021), Women's Basketball (2022) and AUX Softball (2022). Athletes Unlimited is building the next generation of both athletes and fans.

Our athletes are in charge of their team and league decisions, and of their individual success. We reboot rosters, and gameplay to create fast and exciting competition that speaks to contemporary sports fans, bringing them close to the action and the athletes in games where every moment counts. We incorporate the player-centric model that fans love about fantasy sports. We use digital media platforms and cutting-edge technology to connect fans deeply to athletes at the top of their game on and off the field, and to the game itself.

HOW THE TEAMS ARE SELECTED

A draft will be held prior to each series of games with the top four players on the individual leaderboard serving as the team captains. The captains will fill their rosters by selecting 14 other players. Each draft will be held on the Monday prior to each week's games.

Uniform colors will be assigned based on the team captain's rank on the leaderboard. The top-scoring captain's team will wear gold, while the second-highest point scorer's team dons orange jerseys. The third-place team will wear blue jerseys during each series and the fourth-place team wears purple jerseys.

Each team will consist of 15 players, including four pitchers, two catchers, three middle infielders, three corner infielders and three outfielders.

RULES OF INTEREST

Game Duration: Each Athletes Unlimited Softball game will consist of seven (7) innings regardless of the game's score. If the visiting team scores in the top of the seventh inning but trails in the game, the home team will bat in the bottom of the inning in an attempt to win the inning points.

Extra Innings: Team inning points and individual stat points are not earned in extra innings. Only inning points that have carried over from the seventh inning and game win points can be accumulated. No individual stat points will be awarded once a game goes past the seventh inning.

Captain's Challenges: Each captain will be permitted two (2) video review challenges per game, which will be reviewed by the replay official for a final decision. A challenge must be indicated by one of the two designated team representatives either verbally or visually before the next pitch is thrown, before all members of the infield have left their positions and fair territory, or before the umpires have left the field of play. A challenge is indicated visually by tapping the top of the head with one hand.

In addition, umpires are allowed to initiate a video review of any call in the reviewable plays list once the game reaches the sixth inning.

The following plays can be reviewed:

1. Whether a batted ball called fair, is fair or foul.
2. Whether a batted ball called a ground-rule double or home run is fair or foul.
3. Whether a batted ball called foul that could result in a ground-rule double or home run is fair or foul.
4. Decide scoring plays at home plate, including collisions (illegal and/or malicious slides), obstruction by a defensive player or timing plays
5. Force tag/play calls
6. Hit-by-pitch calls
7. Placement of runners
8. With runners on base, a no-catch call can be changed to a catch only if it results in a third out. With no runners on base, a no-catch call can be changed to a catch at any time.
9. If the ball left the field of play on a home run
10. All aspects of a scoring play or timing play
11. Obstruction and interference at any base, only if the play in question results or would result in the third out of an inning and relates to a scoring/timing play
12. Malicious/flagrant contact
13. Deciding on a foul tip/foul ball at the plate, including a dropped strike

INDIVIDUAL LEADERBOARD

While traditional softball statistics are kept during each Athletes Unlimited Softball game, players can earn individual points by accumulating those statistics. Points accumulated by statistics, inning and/or game wins and MVP selections are used to create an individual leaderboard, which determines captains for each week's games and the individual champion at the end of the season.

Points are awarded at the following increments during the game:

Single	+10 Points
Double	+20 Points
Triple	+30 Points
Home Run	+40 Points
Stolen Base	+10 Points
Caught Stealing	-10 Points
Base on Balls	+8 Points
Hit By Pitch	+8 Points
Sacrifice Fly/Bunt	+10 Points

In addition, pitchers are awarded at the following increments during the game:

Out Recorded	+4 Points
Earned Run Allowed	-10 Points

Athletes will be awarded 10 individual points if their team wins a single inning. If the teams score the same number of runs in an inning, the points carry over to the next inning.

All of the athletes on the winning team in each game are awarded 50 individual points toward the individual leaderboard. The total score determines the overall game winner, which means a team may lose multiple innings, but still win the overall game.

A total of three MVPs will be selected following each game by the athletes with the top player earning 60 points. The second MVP receives 40 points, while the third MVP claims 20 points.

POSTSEASON AWARDS

At the conclusion of the 2023 Athletes Unlimited Softball season, medals will be presented to the top four finishers on the leaderboard in addition to the Defensive Player of the Year, the Rookie of the Year and the Teammate of the Year presented by weThink. An All-Defensive Team will also be recognized as part of the closing ceremony.

ATHLETE COMPENSATION

Athletes are compensated in three ways during an Athletes Unlimited season, including base pay, win bonuses (inning and game wins) and a leaderboard bonus. The leaderboard bonus also includes an additional donation equal to 100 percent of the athlete's win bonus to their selected cause partner.

MEDALS

The top four players on the final leaderboard in addition to the Defensive Player of the Year, the Rookie of the Year and the Teammate of the Year presented by weThink will receive a medal designed and fabricated for Athletes Unlimited by Lisa Issenberg, founder of Kiitellä, inc. The front face of the medal represents the identity of Athletes Unlimited, while the back face of the medal leans into the specific sport, the year, location and words about Athletes Unlimited's vision, mission and values on and off the field - Excellence in Community and Leadership.

THE BOOK OF UNLIMITED

The Book of Unlimited was designed, handmade and bound for Athletes Unlimited and serves as a record keeper of its leagues. The book, which was handmade by Tikhon Verygyn in his studio in Kyiv, Ukraine, weighs nearly 25 pounds, measures approximately 12" by 18" and contains nearly 500 pages. The champion, along with all who competed, are inscribed into the book. In addition, The Book of Unlimited also contains a history of achievements in Athletes Unlimited, including stories, highlights and events.

The book is opened during the Opening Ceremony for each season and is closed after the champion is named and her name is inscribed into the book. The tradition began during Athletes Unlimited Softball's inaugural season in 2020.

FACILITATOR BIOS

Erin Dixon, who was hired as pitching coach at Georgia Tech in September, was one of three first-time Athletes Unlimited Softball facilitators during the 2023 Championship Season.

FAITH CANFIELD

FACILITATOR • FIRST SEASON
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

The University of Michigan has produced several standouts in Athletes Unlimited Softball history. Faith Canfield added her name to the list as she completed her first summer as a facilitator during the 2023 Championship Season.

Canfield, who was elevated to a full-time assistant coach position at Michigan this summer after spending two years as a volunteer assistant, has guided the Wolverines to 64 wins in those two seasons. Michigan earned an at-large berth into the 2022 NCAA Tournament field while finishing with a 38-18 record, including a 14-8 mark in Big Ten Conference play.

Canfield returned to her alma mater following two years as a graduate assistant at Northwestern where she earned a master's degree in sport administration. With Canfield on the sidelines, the Wildcats authored a 41-29 record and earned an NCAA Tournament berth in 2021.

A four-year starter and two-year team captain for Coach Carol Hutchins, Canfield earned a pair of NFCA Third-Team All-America commendations at third base during her sophomore and junior seasons. She also garnered three NFCA All-Great Lakes Region awards in addition to being a two-time selection to the All-Big Ten First Team.

Canfield, a two-time Big Ten All-Defensive Team honoree, posted a .987 career fielding percentage with just seven total errors during her career at second base. She also batted .390 or higher in each of her final three seasons in Ann Arbor, including a career-best .404 mark as a senior.

In 216 career games, the Garden Grove, California, native hit .379 with 28 home runs and 131 runs batted in. She finished with 253 hits, including 46 doubles and two triples, while scoring 178 runs.

Michigan posted a 184-46-1 record during Canfield's playing career. The Wolverines captured three Big Ten regular season crowns in addition to the 2019 Big Ten Tournament title. In addition, Michigan reached the NCAA Women's College World Series during Canfield's freshman season (2016).

ELLIE COOPER

FACILITATOR • THIRD SEASON
FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

Ellie Cooper completed her third campaign as a facilitator for Athletes Unlimited Softball during the 2023 Championship Season after serving in the role during the 2022 AUX and Championship Seasons.

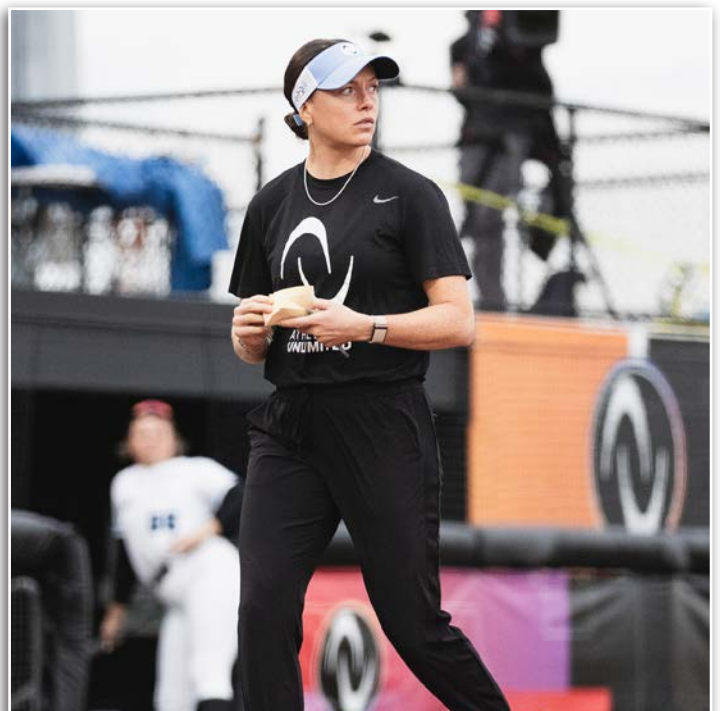

Cooper, a 2018 graduate of Florida State, serves as the player performance director for the Seminoles' softball program. She aids in the implementation and development of the mental game and player performance while assisting with day-to-day operations.

A member of the Seminoles from 2014-17, Cooper also spent the 2018 campaign as a student assistant when Florida State won the NCAA title. As a player, she was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection and claimed a spot on the 2016 NFCA All-Southeast Region Second Team.

During her time in Tallahassee, Cooper boasted a .319 batting average with 122 runs batted in. She also fashioned 31 doubles, seven triples and seven home runs while posting a .417 on-base percentage. She boasted a .960 fielding percentage while playing 243 games at second base.

Cooper led Florida State to four ACC crowns and four NCAA Super Regional appearances. The Seminoles also reached the NCAA Women's College World Series in 2014 and 2016 during her time as a player.

Born in New Zealand, Cooper competed in six World Championships for the New Zealand National Team and was a two-time team captain.

ERIN DIXSON

FACILITATOR • FIRST SEASON
ECKERD COLLEGE

Erin Dixon completed her inaugural campaign as an Athletes Unlimited Softball facilitator during the 2023 Championship Season following a two-year stint as the pitching coach at UNC Wilmington (UNCW).

Under Dixon's guidance, the Seahawks have boasted one of the top pitching staffs in the Colonial Athletic Association while securing the program's first-ever conference title and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2022.

Led by standouts Janel Gamache and Kara Hammock, the Seahawk pitching staff fashioned a 2.71 team earned run average in 2023 to finish second in the CAA. Gamache, the second player in program history to earn CAA Player of the Year plaudits, fashioned a league-best 1.93 earned run average while Hammock followed in third with a 1.98 mark.

The Seahawks, who reached the CAA Tournament for the second consecutive season, compiled 14 complete game performances along with four shutouts. The pitching unit finished with 262 strikeouts, the sixth-highest mark in school history and the most since 2014.

During Dixon's inaugural campaign in the Port City, the Seahawks racked up a school-record 308 strikeouts while fashioning a 1.85 team earned run average. A pair of freshmen - Hammock and Emily Winstead - teamed up to lead the CAA's top pitching staff while holding the top two spots on the individual rankings.

Winstead, the first player in UNCW softball history to receive the league's Pitcher of the Year honor, ranked second in the circuit with a 2.05 earned run average while leading the CAA with 184 strikeouts and 10 complete games. She set the program's freshman single-season strikeout mark and was honored as a Top 25 Freshman by the NFCA.

Hammock, meanwhile, was named CAA Rookie of the Year after collecting a league-low 1.92 earned run average with four shutouts and 78 strikeouts in 105.2 innings. Hammock became the sixth player in school history to complete a season with a sub-2.00 ERA.

Dixon's pitching staff registered 23 complete games and notched a school-record seven saves, including three saves from Amberlyn Pearce to set the individual season standard.

Dixon joined the Seahawks' staff after two seasons as pitching coach at Georgia State. The Panthers posted a 7-16 record during the COVID-19 shortened campaign in 2020 before finishing the 2021 season at 16-30.

Under Dixon's tutelage, the Panthers' pitching staff lowered its earned run average by nearly one run, dropping from 5.37 in 2019 to 4.40 during the 2021 season. Sophie Mooney ranked seventh in the Sun Belt Conference with 82 strikeouts while Emily Buck was the conference leader by conceding just 56 hits in 56.0 innings.

Prior to her time at Georgia State, Dixon spent the 2019 season as the pitching coach at Lamar, guiding the Cardinals to a 23-34 record, including a 14-13 mark in the Southland Conference.

Aaliyah Ruiz paced the Lamar pitching staff with a 2.30 earned run average in 24 appearances as the Cardinals ranked seventh in the Southland Conference with a 2.99 team ERA.

Dixon, who earned her master's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2018, served as a graduate manager for two seasons with the Tigers, who reached the NCAA Women's College World Series in 2017.

A 2015 graduate of Eckerd College with a bachelor's degree in communications, Dixon appeared in 52 games for the Tritons from 2014-15 and ranks fourth in program history with a 2.78 earned run average. She also stands ninth on the career list with 113 strikeouts, while her 24 wins in the circle are good for sixth in school history.

The Amherst, N.Y., native also excelled at the plate, hitting .308 with 19 home runs and 62 runs batted in. Her .571 slugging percentage ranks third in Eckerd program history.

Dixon earned Second-Team NFCA All-South Region distinction as a first baseman during her senior season and was a Second-Team All-Sunshine State Conference pick after hitting 11 home runs with 36 runs batted in.

BRYCE TE KULVE

FACILITATOR • FIRST SEASON
ST. NORBERT COLLEGE

Bryce Te Kulve finished his first stint as a facilitator for Athletes Unlimited Softball during the 2023 Championship Season.

Te Kulve joined the professional ranks after spending the last two seasons as a graduate assistant for the Florida State University softball team. During Te Kulve's time in Tallahassee, the Seminoles have won a pair of Atlantic Coast Conference titles along with reaching the NCAA Women's College World Series in 2023.

Te Kulve's work with the Seminoles included creating practice plans and data collection and analysis. In addition, he aided in the recruiting and camp operations for the program.

The Luxemburg, Wisconsin, product was a pitcher for the United States Men's National Team in 2022. He is a current member of Team USA's U-23 Men's National Team.

Te Kulve also received his master's degree in sport management from Florida State this past May. He was announced as the pitching coach at Texas Tech on July 19, 2023.

ALEX IBARRA

BATTING PRACTICE PITCHER • THIRD SEASON
LSU

Alex Ibarra returned for his third stint as a batting practice pitcher for Athletes Unlimited Softball, including his second Championship Season, in 2023.

Ibarra is a graduate student manager for the LSU softball team, assisting with day-to-day operations for the program in addition to throwing batting practice for the Tigers.

In addition, the Cedar Hill, Texas, native was named to the first-ever USA Softball U-23 Men's National Team as a pitcher. He also earned a spot on the 2018 USA Softball Junior Men's National Team and competed in the WBSC World Championship in Prince Albert, Canada.

Ibarra, who also works as an operations assistant for Rogelio Cabello, was on the coaching staff for the USA Women's National Team in October 2022 and helped the squad earn a berth in the 2023 Pan American Games.

PARKWAY BANK SPORTS COMPLEX

Athletes Unlimited Seasons Hosted: 2020, 2021, 2022 & 2023 Championship Season Softball, 2023 AUX Softball

Parkway Bank Sports Complex, one of the premier softball facilities in the country, provides the backdrop for the 2023 Athletes Unlimited Softball Championship Season. The venue also hosted the 2023 Athletes Unlimited AUX Softball campaign earlier this summer.

The venue, which includes an outdoor stadium and a 140,000 square foot dome, has been the home for Athletes Unlimited Softball since its inception in 2020. Since opening in 2011, the facility has entertained a number of events, including Chicago Bandits (NPF) softball along with the Big East Conference (2014-19, 2022) and Chicagoland Collegiate Athletic Conference Softball Tournaments.

During their nine-year stay at the facility, the Chicago Bandits won a pair of NPF regular season championships in addition to the 2011, 2015 and 2016 Cowles Cup titles.

At the time of its construction, Parkway Bank Sports Complex became the first facility of its kind built specifically for women's professional sports in the nation.

MOMENTS FROM THE LITTLE LEAGUE SOFTBALL WORLD SERIES

By Savanna Collins
August 11, 2023

This week was one of many firsts in softball.

Athletes Unlimited Softball traveled for the first time ever during Championship season. Heading to Greenville, N.C., the league was a part of another first at the Little League Softball World Series – professional games played for the first time ever at the event.

AU received the warmest welcome on their arrival, as Little Leaguers waited outside the bus for the athletes to arrive.

It was just the start of days filled with Little Leaguers meeting the players they watch and look up to. They shared meals, talked softball, and took the field together.

For some athletes, this hit incredibly close to home when they connected with the Little Leaguers representing the countries of their national teams. Like when Erika Piancastelli, a member of the Italian National Team – face timed her biggest fans from Team Italy to wish them good luck in their games on Tuesday.

Or when Victoria Hayward from Team Canada looked into the stands to see the Canadian Little Leaguers waving the flag and cheering for her.

Team Puerto Rico surprised Aleshia Ocasio at practice where they got to meet their idol – the pitcher for the Puerto Rican National Team.

“I think it’s a beautiful thing for them to be able to come here and play in the Little League World Series, for Puerto Rico to be able to be represented,” Ocasio said. “I told them to have fun, embrace it, good luck, keep working hard and one day they’ll be in an Athletes Unlimited uniform.

AU rookie Kathryn Sandercock returned as a star to the stage where her softball career began to take off. This year marks the 10-year anniversary of Sandercock’s run with Team Virginia to the World Series. She’s proven her poise at every level from Little League to a start with Florida State and now as a closer with AU.

She threw out the first pitch and was given a custom painting by Little League to represent her continued excellence and achievements in the sport.

Not only was Sandercock honored, but the people who packed the snacks and drove her to all those practices were recognized too. Her parents Colin and Trish Sandercock were named the George and Barbara Bush Little League® Parents of the Year. They are the first-ever softball parents given the honor.

The award was originally established in 1980 to honor parents of Major League Baseball players who were actively involved in their son’s Little League years. In 2022, the award’s criteria expanded to include all professional sports, giving the opportunity to recognize those committed parents of notable softball players as well.

AU athletes celebrated and cheered on the Little Leaguers all day on Tuesday, who returned the favor at the Pro Games.

The league played the first set of Week 3’s doubleheaders in front of a packed crowd of youth athletes and their families.

Nina Johnson-Pitt, the Senior Strategy Executive for Little League, explained that the idea to bring the pro game to the Softball World Series was inspired by the Little League Baseball World Series which hosts Major League games for their athletes.

“The AU players coming here and seeing how excited they are about the Little League games... you can see in their eyes they remember when they were this age and their love for the game just continues to grow,” Johnson-Pitt said.

It’s brought a level of excitement this year that Little League Softball hasn’t seen before

“I think it’s an incredible partnership. It’s the perfect combination of professional and youth and I think we just continue to work together to make sure this game continues to grow and has a huge impact.”

SAM FISCHER: CHAMPIONING THE SPIRIT OF AU SOFTBALL THROUGH PLAY AND LEADERSHIP

By Bruce Miles
August 22, 2023

In whatever role you find her with Athletes Unlimited, Sam Fischer looks to be at home.

It could be in the infield, where she is snagging ground balls and throwing batters out at first base.

It could be at a conference table, where she is chairing a meeting of the Player Executive Committee and helping to shape the future of AU and women's sports.

Or it could be in front of a camera, where she is surrounded by young softball fans in the stands or in "The Hot Seat," where she gives her video take of the finer points of another Athletes Unlimited sport: lacrosse. Spoiler alert: She gets it somewhat right about "dangerous propelling," "shooting space," and "around the world." Somewhat. But she was quite sporting about it.

In other words, Fischer may be the perfect embodiment of the spirit of Athletes Unlimited: hard play on the field, leadership off the field, and large doses of fun and laughter.

"I feel super lucky that I'm doing exactly what I want to do," she said. "I can't imagine not having the most fun every single day. It's all real, too. I'm not putting on to make it look like everything is great. I'm just truly happy and truly joyful to be on the field. I don't want to do anything else. This is it. It makes me really happy."

A CHANCE TO KEEP PLAYING

Fischer joined Athletes Unlimited Softball for its inaugural championship season in 2020 after a successful college career at Loyola Marymount, an international journey with Team USA, and professional experience in the United States and Japan.

During the first AU season, games were played in an empty stadium because of COVID. Still, AU managed to complete a full season and announce its arrival as a new and serious player on the professional sports scene.

"I wanted to play softball," Fischer said of what attracted her to AU. "I wanted to keep playing softball. It gave me the opportunity to continue. Once I got on the presentation with Cheri (Kempf, AU Vice President) about what it means, what it is, what it looks like, I thought, 'This seems really interesting. It seems really cool.' AU has full-time staff members. They have year-round salaried employees, so it seemed sustainable from the beginning, which we've never had in softball."

Any skepticism Fischer might have about whether the new venture would make it was quickly dispelled.

"The only time I would ever have been skeptical was because of COVID," she said. "That's the only reason I thought maybe it wouldn't happen in 2020. But they put us and our health first and still made it possible to have a season. If we could do that, we can do anything. We didn't touch. We didn't hug. We were all social-distancing. And we got up there (at the end of the 2020 season) and were like, 'You guys, we did this.'"

TWO HISTORIC HOMERS

It didn't take long for Fischer to make her presence known on the field with Athletes Unlimited. She recorded the first hit and home run in AU softball history on August 29, 2020.

"It was cool because I didn't realize that it was historic until afterward," she said. "I was just out there playing a ballgame and then, 'Oh, wow, first this, first that. Whoa, all right.' We lost by a lot that game. It was pretty cool, and regardless of if it was me or whatever, it was showing the power of softball across the country that a mid-major kid came out and was able to do something like that. So it feels pretty special."

It wasn't the first historic homer this "mid-major kid" had hit. In her final home game while playing for Loyola Marymount in Los Angeles, Fischer hit a walk-off grand slam.

"What's crazy is that it was Senior Weekend because it was our last home weekend," she said. "We were playing against our rivals, Sacramento State. We played doubleheaders on Saturdays and Sundays. On Saturday, we got in the first game, and then it rained. So we had a tripleheader on that Sunday. Our last day of softball at LMU was a tripleheader."

"We had beaten them the first two games and then we were beating them pretty good in the bottom of the fifth inning, and if I hit the grand slam, it was a mercy-rule (victory). It was just one of those days where you could just kind of feel it. The ball hit my bat and went out of the yard, and I'm like, 'This couldn't have been a more perfect cherry on top of the career that I was able to have there. It was really special. It was pretty cool.'"

In a sport dominated by players from Power 5 college conferences, Fischer takes pride in starring in professional softball after attending a mid-major.

"I love it," she said. "I actually got to say this on the broadcast the other night: I'm just proud I still get to represent LMU. Those four years were very formative. They were impactful for me as a person, as a player. Could I have gone somewhere bigger or maybe like a more reputable softball program? Maybe, but at the time, LMU was the place for me, and it was everything that I could ever have needed or wanted. Looking back on everything that I've been able to do in the softball space, I would pick it 100 times over. I feel very proud to represent LMU. They're still so supportive, and we still have such a great relationship."

A LEADER EMERGES

A vocal leader on the field, Fischer has quickly ascended into a leadership role off the field. Each Athletes Unlimited sport has a Player Executive Committee, which is made up of a group of players that helps set policy and gives recommendations for all aspects of the league.

Fischer is the chairperson for softball, a role she has truly grown into, even if she didn't envision it when she first signed to play.

"I didn't, but when they asked me in 2020 to be on the PEC, I was so gung-ho and excited to do it," she said. "At the time, (outfielder) Victoria Hayward was the chair, and she did so well in setting a standard for, 'Here's where we want to go.' So I wanted to take the baton from her when she decided to step down and continue the hunt for greatness. She left some big shoes to fill. When I got to talk to her more about her role and how it was as chair, I knew that if I had the chance, I would love to do that."

Among Fischer's goals is to continue the standard set by Hayward and others who have served on the PEC.

"Obviously, there are short-term goals, but ultimately, the long-term goal is that people can come and have a professional experience for the entirety of their professional career," she said. "They can play softball and not have to worry about anything else. So I hope in my time in this position I can help make it to where people want to continue investing in Athletes Unlimited."

"I see people investing in it. I see people watching it more. I see us getting ESPN2 slots on broadcasts. I see these things happening in the present and know that we talk about growing the game. We're doing the hard work in laying the foundation right now only to propel it up and get people to say, 'Yeah, I am watching. I can't go out tonight. I'm watching the game,' whether it's a women's soccer game, women's volleyball, women's softball. And I do think Athletes Unlimited is really pushing that, 'Look at what we're doing. We're popular, and we're all women's sports.' I do think AU is creating a landscape that we've wanted and we've needed in the women's sports space."

Nearing 33, Fischer knows that the majority of her softball-playing days are behind her, but she's not ready to call it a career yet.

"It's a really hard decision because for me it's like a head decision instead of a heart decision," she said. "If I had to listen to my heart, I'm playing until I literally die on the field. It's coming. I think the end is coming – not this year – but I think it's soon because I know that there are other things knocking at the door. I've really enjoyed the position as chair. I'm starting to see what I can do, maybe off the field, that can continue to aid the work I've done on the field. I'm excited for the future, but the cleats are staying on for a little while longer, at least."

When it does come time for Fischer to hang up the cleats, Athletes Unlimited could still be in her future. In addition to her time on the PEC, she also took part in assisting with the Athletes Unlimited Volleyball Exhibition Tour this past spring.

"I'd love to stay in softball," she said. "I'd love to work for Athletes Unlimited full time. That's ultimately the goal. But I don't know. I've thought about coaching here and there. I live very near to Arizona State, so I'd love to get into a Power 5 position. But ultimately, I think doing the work for Athletes Unlimited has really lit a fire in me the last three years. I worked with (AU) volleyball, and they did a college tour, and I got to go on that with them. Getting on that Athletes Unlimited side rather than just on the softball side, that was really rewarding. I hopefully see myself doing something like that for the company when I retire. I would love that."

"I think this is unique. Athletes Unlimited is doing something new. They're reinventing the wheel without reinventing the sport, which is really neat. I've never been in a space where I feel that I can be so impactful, as a player on a team, as a player in a group. And everyone around me, I think the impact is so great. This is very unique and very special in that way."

HOW MIA DAVIDSON BROKE OUT AS STARTING CATCHER IN 2023

By Savanna Collins
September 13, 2023

In Mia Davidson's rookie season, she found ways on the field and into the lineup.

Throughout 2022, she started 12 games as the designated player, played 13 innings in right field, and seven at first base. But she only had two innings as a catcher — her true position. In 2023, Davidson became one of the staple catchers in Athletes Unlimited Softball, logging 94 innings behind the plate in the 2023 Championship season and 56 at AUX.

She is one of few in the league's history to break into one of the most challenging positions and earn a consistent starting spot. A full year of intentional training, dedication, and opportunities led to Davidson achieving her goals as a professional catcher in just her second year as a pro. And it started where few can see: the bullpen.

Despite playing a handful of innings as a catcher, Davidson was one of the most consistent catchers to gear up when a pitcher needed to throw a bullpen.

"Her willingness to put in the extra work, getting to know pitchers ... She's a yes person, she'll never say no," is how pitcher Peyton St. George described Davidson's commitment during her rookie year.

AU Softball has seen its share of pitcher-catcher duos. Most remember Cat Osterman drafting Gwen Svekis with her No. 1 pick every week in the inaugural season. Or Danielle O'Toole and Sashel Palacios' friendship that translated to strategy on the field. But most catchers rotate with new pitching staffs every week, making relationship-building paramount because when you're facing the best hitters in the world, there has to be trust.

"Mia catching so many different pitchers, she knows where they miss and she knows how to call them," St. George said. Many AU pitchers don't throw much during the week, giving their bodies and arms time to rest. When they were ready, Davidson was waiting to say yes.

Davidson's development continued after the 2022 season when she was named to the 15-player Women's National Team roster set to represent Team USA at the 2022 Pan American Games where she competed with five other AU pitchers including Odicci Alexander, Alyssa Denham, Mariah Mazon, Rachel Garcia, and 2023 newcomer Megan Faraimo.

"We worked really well together, just how we communicated on and off. Like every inning, we would go in and talk about what we saw with certain batters and if we didn't agree we respected each other and would say, 'That's okay, let's try this.' It's all about knowing that what you call, they'll trust that it's gonna work," Davidson said.

Trust in Davidson's pitch calling means sometimes putting faith in the untraditional. St. George brought up a game where Davidson called three change-ups in a row. "I love throwing her because she doesn't get into patterns ... She does things that are very out of the ordinary. She loves to play cat and mouse with the hitters."

Davidson recalls that sequence well. "I was like, why not? Sure, see what happens. They haven't been on time yet so if they are on time good for them," she laughed.

Months of growth led to the first draft of the 2023 AUX season. With her seventh pick, captain Morgan Zerkle drafted Davidson as the first catcher to her team and on the opening day of games, called her number to start. It was the beginning of Davidson's establishment as a top catcher and the first step of her climb up the leaderboard. She finished the first series ranked fifth overall and then fourth after the second series. Davidson closed out the season in third place, medaling for the first time in her AU career.

Where Davidson had previously been drafted for her bat (and rightfully so) she was now being picked to teams for her all-around contribution and ability to call a game.

"I knew I was a good hitter and a good catcher. [It was] just actually putting it into action and showing it and having the confidence to come in here and [say], 'Alright, I'm just gonna give it all. Whatever happens, happens.' I think I matured in that way."

Her upped draft stock and starting spot carried over into Championship season, where she was consistently picked in the early third and fourth rounds until she was the one choosing her own team. Davidson was a captain for the first time in Week Three and stayed in the top four to be a captain again in Week Four.

Amongst working on framing and learning new strategies for pitch calling, there was a moment working with veteran catcher Taylor Edwards that stuck out most to Davidson and encapsulated how she needed to progress as a player. Multiple weeks in her rookie year she played behind Edwards and would pick her brain about what she called and why during. Edwards told Davidson that while she accounts for the pitcher's strengths and the batter at the plate, sometimes it just comes down to her gut. It was about trusting yourself to make the right call.

Davidson could develop her skills all offseason but she also had to shake the doubt and stop the overthinking. "I feel like it's all about trusting what you know and if you have confidence in it, you can't regret calling it," Davidson explained. "But now I'm like, you know what if I call it, I believe every single ounce she's gonna throw this best pitch right here."

Coming into the summer of competition, Davidson said that she didn't want to be defined as a hitter who catches but instead known as a catcher who hits. She feels like she's there now.

"It's pretty impressive knowing that people now trust me to catch ... I think that's probably the best. I really take pride in that." Laughing, she added, "Especially when we win."

KAT THE CLOSER SHINES AS FIRST PITCHER TO ESTABLISH THE ROLE AT AU SOFTBALL

By Savanna Collins
September 20, 2023

Goat or hero? With a game on the line, the pitcher will end up as one or the other. Hero if you get the big strikeout; goat if you give up a home run.

That's how Florida State Softball head coach Lonni Alameda describes those high-pressure situations and it's what Kat Sandercock came to thrive in as a Seminole.

While the closer role is vital to a baseball pitching staff, it's less common within softball. But in Sandercock's freshman year at FSU in 2019, she developed into a masterful relief pitcher for her team. She worked up to a starter throughout her college career but then stepped back into the role as a senior. In her final season, she finished with 10 saves.

So when captain Dejah Mulipola called her number in the fifth inning with a two-run lead, two runners on, and no outs, she was ready. Sandercock had been here before – and she loved it.

"The chance to be in that and be one or the other is why you play sports ... To put your best up against the best in the toughest situation," Sandercock said about that game. "I think it's so fun."

It was her first outing as a pro and she immediately established herself as something Athletes Unlimited Softball hadn't seen before from a pitcher. In the draft, often captains go after securing two aces to start games but week after week Sandercock was drafted early and often because of her ability to enter any time into the game.

"It's just different," Sandercock explained. "You don't really get a chance to feel out the umpire, feel out the strike zone, feel out the batters. That first inning, everybody is just getting into the game, but when you come in the sixth or seventh, you don't really have a lot of room for error because your team doesn't have a lot more opportunities to score."

That first outing was all the league needed to see about Sandercock's cool demeanor in the circle that propelled her to get late-game outs. 2023 Champion and three-time captain Odicci Alexander knew Sandercock was someone she needed on her teams. Alexander chose Sandercock with her eighth pick in Week Three and her first overall pick for the final weekend of games. Outing after outing, they were a fierce staff to see back-to-back.

In Week Three, Sandercock was back where her competitive spirit and love for softball began. Ten years prior, Sandercock helped McLean Little League reach the 2013 Little League Softball World Series Championship. Now, she was competing at the first-ever Athletes Unlimited Pro games at the Little League Softball World Series in Greensboro, NC.

Just like when she was a kid, her parents Colin and Trish were in the stands. And just like she had prepared for, she closed out the final three innings of the game. Sandercock entered after Alexander, throwing four innings and holding onto the tie. She shut down 16 straight batters. With two outs in the bottom of the ninth, Aliyah Andrews hit a walk-off single to secure the win for Team Alexander.

Going from Alexander to Sandercock gave batters a different look in the box; Alexander often throws hard and up while Sandercock throws hard and down. Her drop ball is her most effective and reliable pitch – perfect in relief because it helps keep the ball in the park and often results in ground outs from batters.

Sticking to what had gotten her to this point was something Sandercock heard from the veterans around her often.

"I think that when you come into pro league, especially as a rookie, you can get kind of caught up in trying to change your game to get these hitters out and try to throw to their weaknesses in a sense, rather than throw to your own strengths and know what you do well and just going out there and doing what you do best. So that's been some advice that I've gotten that's been really helpful."

One learning curve she had to adjust to in the fast-paced environment of AU was overplanning. In college, scouting, spray charts, and watching film were a huge part of Sandercock's preparation for games.

"I think I ended up psyching myself out a little bit just because all these batters are so good and they don't have many holes in their swings," Sandercock said. "It's not very obvious how to attack a lot of these hitters because they're pros. They're really good."

She shifted to thinking through what has worked – and not worked – against batters in the past. She relied more on trusting her memory and strategies of attack so she could take a different approach each time she faced a batter.

"I think for the most part, just trying not to overthink it has worked really well for me. Going out there with a competitive mindset instead of being so tuned into the scouting part of it ... I've let that go in my game a little bit and I think that it's actually benefited me."

In her rookie season, Sandercock logged a 2.05 ERA and held opponents to just a 2.60 batting average. She finished 22nd overall on the final leaderboard with 12 appearances and a league-leading three saves.

"I like when it's in my hands ... That's just so fun and I think that the teams that I've been on have really just trusted me in that role. But yeah, I like being Kat the closer."
