PARKWAY BANK SPORTS COMPLEX

Athletes Unlimited Seasons Hosted: 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023 & 2024 Championship Season Softball, 2023 AUX Softball

Parkway Bank Sports Complex, one of the premier softball facilities in the country, provides the backdrop for the 2024 Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball Championship Season. It will be the sixth time the venue has hosted an AU Pro Softball season.

The venue, which includes an outdoor stadium and a 140,000 square foot dome, has been the home for Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball since its inception in 2020. Since opening in 2011, the facility has entertained a number of events, including Chicago Bandits (NPF) softball along with the Big East Conference (2014-19, 2022) and Chicagoland Collegiate Athletic Conference Softball Tournaments.

During their nine-year stay at the facility, the Chicago Bandits won a pair of NPF regular season championships in addition to the 2011, 2015 and 2016 Cowles Cup titles.

At the time of its construction, Parkway Bank Sports Complex became the first facility of its kind built specifically for women's professional sports in the nation.

WHO WE ARE

Athletes Unlimited is a new model of professional sports where athletes are decision makers and individual players are champions of team sports. We literally change the game with faster play and fluid teams, delivering next-level competition and engagement in which every moment counts. Starting in 2020 with Women's Softball and following with Women's Volleyball (2021), Women's Lacrosse (2021), Women's Basketball (2022) and AUX Softball (2022), Athletes Unlimited will build the next generation of both athletes and fans.

Our athletes are in charge of their team and league decisions, and of their individual success. We reboot timetables, rosters, and gameplay to create fast and exciting competition that speaks to contemporary sports fans, bringing them close to the action and the athletes in games where every moment counts. We incorporate the player-centric model that fans love about fantasy sports. We use digital media platforms and cutting-edge technology to connect fans deeply to athletes at the top of their game on and off the field, and to the game itself.

HOW THE TEAMS ARE SELECTED

A draft will be held prior to each series of games with the top four players on the individual leaderboard serving as the team captains. The captains will fill their rosters by selecting 14 other players. Each draft will be held on the Monday prior to each week's games.

Uniform colors will be assigned based on the team captain's rank on the leaderboard. The top-scoring captain's team will wear gold, while the second-highest point scorer's team dons orange jerseys. The third-place team will wear blue jerseys during each series and the fourth-place team wears purple jerseys.

Each team will consist of 15 players, including four pitchers, two catchers, two corner infielders, three middle infielders and four outfielders.

RULES OF INTEREST

Game Duration: Each Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball game will consist of seven (7) innings regardless of the game's score. If the visiting team scores in the top of the seventh inning but trails in the game, the home team will bat in the bottom of the inning in an attempt to win the inning points.

Extra Innings: Team inning points and individual stat points are not earned in extra innings. Only inning points that have carried over from the seventh inning and team game win points can be accumulated. No individual stat points will be awarded once a game goes past the seventh inning.

Captain's Challenges: Each captain will be permitted two (2) video review challenges per game, which will be sent to the replay official for a final decision. A challenge must be indicated by one of the two designated team representatives either verbally or visually before the next pitch is thrown, before all members of the infield have left their positions and fair territory, or before the umpires have left the field of play. A challenge is indicated visually by tapping the top of the head with one hand.

In addition, umpires are allowed to initiate a video review of any call in the reviewable plays list once the game reaches the sixth inning.

The following plays can be reviewed:

1. Whether a batted ball called fair, is fair or foul.
2. Whether a batted ball called a ground-rule double or home run is fair or foul.
3. Whether a batted ball called foul that could result in a ground-rule double or home run is fair or foul.
4. Decide scoring players at home plate, including collisions (illegal and/or malicious slides), obstruction by a defensive player or timing plays
5. Force tag/play calls
6. Hit-by-pitch calls
7. Placement of runners
8. With runners on base, a no-catch call can be changed to a catch only if it results in a third out. With no runners on base, a no-catch call can be changed to a catch at any time.
9. If the ball left the field of play on a home run
10. All aspects of a scoring play or timing play
11. Obstruction and interference at any base, only if the play in question results or would result in the third out of an inning and relates to a scoring/timing play
12. Malicious/flagrant contact
13. Deciding on a foul tip/foul ball at the plate, including a dropped strike

INDIVIDUAL LEADERBOARD

While traditional softball statistics are kept during each Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball game, players earn individual points by accumulating those statistics. Points accumulated by statistics, inning and/or game wins and MVP selections are used to create an individual leaderboard, which determines captains for each series and the individual champion at the end of the season.

Points are awarded at the following increments during the game:

Single	+10 Points
Double	+20 Points
Triple	+30 Points
Home Run	+40 Points
Stolen Base	+10 Points
Caught Stealing	-10 Points
Base on Balls	+10 Points
Hit By Pitch	+8 Points
Sacrifice Fly/Bunt	+10 Points

In addition, pitchers are awarded at the following increments during the game:

Out Recorded	+4 Points
Earned Run Allowed	-10 Points

Every athlete on a team is awarded 10 individual points if the team wins a single inning. If the teams score the same number of runs in an inning, the points carry over to the next inning.

All of the athletes on the winning team in each game are awarded 50 individual points toward the individual leaderboard. The total score determines the overall game winner, which means a team may lose multiple innings, but still win the overall game.

A total of three MVPs will be selected following each game by the athletes with the top player earning 60 points. The second MVP receives 40 points, while the third MVP claims 20 points.

Beginning in the 2024 AUX competition, a player may earn 20 leaderboard points by being selected as the game's Defensive MVP. The player will only receive the points if the following conditions are met:

- The player is not selected as one of the three Game MVPs
- At least 50 percent of the players eligible must vote for a Defensive MVP

POSTSEASON AWARDS

Medals will be presented to the top four finishers on the leaderboard, the Defensive Player of the Year and the Rookie of the Year at the conclusion of the 2024 Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball season. An All-Defensive Team will also be recognized as part of the closing ceremony.

ATHLETE COMPENSATION

Athletes receive compensation in three ways during an Athletes Unlimited season: base pay, win bonuses (inning and game wins) and a leaderboard bonus. Players may also receive an additional bonus if their team registers a shutout victory.

MEDALS

The top four players on the final leaderboard in addition to the Defensive Player of the Year and the Rookie of the Year will receive a medal designed and fabricated for Athletes Unlimited by Lisa Issenberg, founder of Kiitellä, inc. The front face of the medal represents the identity of Athletes Unlimited, while the back face of the medal leans into the specific sport, the year, location and words about Athletes Unlimited's vision, mission and values on and off the field - Excellence in Community and Leadership.

THE BOOK OF UNLIMITED

The Book of Unlimited was designed, handmade and bound for Athletes Unlimited. The book weighs nearly 25 pounds, measures approximately 12" by 18" and contains nearly 500 pages. The champion, along with all who competed, are inscribed into the book. In addition, The Book of Unlimited also contains a history of achievements in Athletes Unlimited, including stories, highlights and events.

The book is opened during the Opening Ceremony for each season and is closed after the champion is named and her name is inscribed into the book. The tradition began during Athletes Unlimited Softball's inaugural season in 2020.

ATHLETE CAUSES

The Athlete Causes program, powered by Give Lively, will provide funding to charities of the players' choice equal to 100 percent of their season win bonus. Players will also have the opportunity of creating their own fundraising pages to support the organizations of their choice.

EMILY CAROSONE

FACILITATOR • FIRST SEASON • AUBURN, '16

Emily Carosone enjoyed her first campaign as an Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball facilitator during the 2024 Championship Season.

Carosone, a 2016 graduate of Auburn University, spent four seasons as a member of Coach Mickey Dean's staff at her alma mater. She was promoted to associate head coach before the 2024 campaign after serving as an assistant coach during the previous three seasons.

The Tigers authored a 139-81-1 record during Carosone's four-year stint while reaching the NCAA Tournament during all four seasons.

Carosone guided Auburn to a .976 fielding percentage this past spring, which ranked second in the Southeastern Conference and 12th in NCAA Division I. In addition, the Tigers' outfield unit combined to commit just one error during the entire season.

In 2023, the Tigers posted a 43-19 record, marking the highest win total during the Dean era. Auburn also garnered a 15-9 mark in SEC play to register its first winning season in league play since 2017. The season also featured the Tigers' first series win at LSU and an appearance in the NCAA Clemson Regional final.

Nelia Peralta and Denver Bryant claimed Second-Team All-SEC honors during the 2023 campaign. Peralta paced the Tigers in hits (54), runs scored (39), walks (43) and batting average (.329), becoming the first Auburn player with 50 or more hits in a season since 2019. Bryant, meanwhile, turned in a .322 batting average against league opponents.

The Auburn defense also shined during the 2023 campaign, posting a .973 fielding percentage. Sophomore catcher Aubrie Lisenby was the Tigers' defensive leader after closing the campaign with a perfect fielding mark behind the plate in addition to throwing out eight runners.

During Carosone's second year on the Plains, the Tigers finished with a 40-17 record and secured victories over No. 8 Kentucky and No. 7 Florida. She worked with the Auburn infielders, including SEC Freshman of the Year Bri Ellis. Ellis committed just three errors at first base to finish with an impressive .989 fielding percentage.

Auburn navigated the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic in Carosone's first year as a full-time assistant, authoring a 27-24 record and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Playing the seventh-toughest schedule in the nation, the Tigers won at Missouri, Texas A&M and LSU for the first time since 2015 in addition to an upset series victory over Kentucky.

Carosone first joined Dean's staff as a graduate assistant prior to the beginning of the 2017 fall season. She went on to work as a volunteer assistant coach during the 2018 and 2019 seasons before departing to train for the 2020 Tokyo Olympics as a member of the Italian National Team.

As a player at Auburn, Carosone guided the Tigers to a pair of SEC Tournament titles and back-to-back NCAA Women's College World Series appearances. She stands as the program's all-time leader in batting average (.406), hits (285), runs scored (267), on-base percentage (.534) and times hit by a pitch (85).

She earned NFCA All-America laurels three times, including First-Team status as a junior. She was also a Top-10 finalist for the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year in 2015 and claimed All-SEC honors as a sophomore and junior.

Carosone played four seasons professionally after being chosen with the No. 22 overall selection by the Chicago Bandits in the 2016 National Pro Fastpitch Draft. She amassed 113 hits, including 14 home runs, with 73 runs batted in and 73 runs scored.

A .273 career hitter in her professional career, Carosone earned a share of the home run title during the 2018 NPF season after belting 12 homers. She helped the Bandits win the Cowles Cup during her rookie season with a thrilling comeback victory over the USSSA Pride in the championship series.

Carosone, who holds dual citizenship in Italy and the United States, was a starter in all five games for Team Italy during the 2020 Tokyo Olympics. She earned her bachelor's degree from Auburn in psychology with a minor in business.

Carosone was named head softball coach at Campbell University on August 20, 2024.

CAROLINE HARDY

FACILITATOR • FIRST SEASON • ALABAMA, '19

Caroline Hardy completed her first campaign as an Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball facilitator during the 2024 Championship Season.

Hardy, a 2019 graduate of the University of Alabama, completed her first season as an assistant coach at the University of Memphis this past spring. She joined the Tigers' staff after spending the 2023 campaign as an assistant coach at UC Santa Barbara.

In her lone season with the Gauchos, Hardy developed one of the top offensive units in the Big West Conference as UCSB led the league in batting average (.293), hits (377), walks (164), triples (26) and on-base percentage (.383).

Four UCSB players earned All-Big West honors under Hardy's tutelage, including First-Team selections Ashley Donaldson and Madelyn McNally. McNally paced the Big West with a .415 batting average and 58 hits, while Donaldson ranked third in the circuit with 37 runs batted in.

Prior to her time at UC Santa Barbara, Hardy piloted Young Harris College to a 57-33 record over two years. She began her college coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Georgia Tech, helping the Yellow Jackets secure a 12-11 record during the COVID-shortened 2020 campaign.

A four-year letter winner at Alabama, Hardy appeared in 152 games with 60 starts. She fashioned 61 hits, including seven doubles and eight home runs, while driving in 34 runs. The Crimson Tide made two appearances in the NCAA Women's College World Series during her playing career and won the 2019 Southeastern Conference regular season title.

Hardy graduated from Alabama with a bachelor's degree in history and a minor in sports management.

BAILEY LANGE

FACILITATOR • SECOND SEASON • WICHITA STATE, '21

Former Wichita State pitcher and outfielder Bailey Lange finished her second season as an Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball facilitator during the 2024 Championship Season.

Lange, who made her Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball debut during the AUX campaign earlier this summer, was a four-year letter winner at Wichita State from 2018-21 after spending two seasons at Northern Iowa. Over four seasons with the Shockers, the Sioux Falls, S.D., product started 105-of-124 games and authored a .295 batting average with 11 home runs and 43 runs batted in.

In addition, Lange made 107 appearances in the circle for Wichita State, including 80 starts, and compiled a 4.41 earned run average along with a 45-32 record and 11 saves. She tallied 45 complete games with 11 shutouts while notching 376 strikeouts.

A Third-Team NFCA All-Central Region honoree in 2021, Lange closed her career by fashioning a 22-8 record and 3.93 earned run average in the circle while registering 137 strikeouts. The Second-Team All-American Athletic Conference selection also garnered a spot on the AAC All-Tournament Team after guiding the Shockers to wins over Tulsa and UCF.

During the COVID-shortened 2020 campaign, Lange earned the starting assignment in 17-of-20 outings and finished with a .357 batting average to go along with three home runs, seven doubles and 15 runs batted in. She also went 4-9 in the circle with three complete games while making 19 appearances in the circle.

Lange emerged as the Shockers' pitching ace during her first season with the program in 2018, claiming First-Team All-AAC distinction after posting a 20-13 record in the circle with a 2.90 earned run average. She also collected 183 strikeouts over 209.2 innings and was the Shockers' starting pitcher in all of their NCAA Tournament games.

In two seasons at Northern Iowa, the two-way standout posted an 11-11 record over 46 appearances in the circle with a 3.69 earned run average and 136 strikeouts. She also hit .276 in 78 games with 17 home runs and 51 runs batted in.

TAYLOR EDWARDS: SMALL DETAILS LEAD TO BIG LEGACY AS A CATCHER

By Savanna Collins
August 1, 2024

Scanning a softball field, it can be easy to miss the catcher. The circle draws your eyes to the pitcher at the rubber like a bullseye or to the target, the batter. They're often obscured from view by the umpire but they're there – squatted at the back of the box strategizing, grinding, and sacrificing.

Taylor Edwards' career as a catcher can be defined this way.

While the crowd may miss her, she notices everything. There is no detail too small for Edwards: her pitcher's fast breathing, letting her know they're anxious, or the tendencies of batters one through nine.

Defensively, she's great. Her meticulousness has made her excellent. But her presence is what has extended her pro career through nearly a decade.

THE STRATEGY

Edwards has always had a built-in pitcher in her life. When her twin sister Tatum wanted to become a pitcher at a young age it was only natural Taylor would complete the other part of the battery. They played together growing up through rec ball, travel ball, and in high school at Vista Murrieta.

In Tatum's senior year, she got the "yips", an informal term for a movement disorder that's often known for affecting athletes in baseball and golf. In softball, it can cause athletes to lose their ability to execute certain skills like pitching and throwing. Tatum lost her ability to control certain pitches, which meant Taylor had no idea where the fastball or drop ball was going.

"It definitely made me be a better blocker and not be scared of the ball," Taylor said. "I just had to kind of be a cat and react to where it is, trust my eyes, trust my hands, get over the fear factor of it's going to hurt."

Tatum struggled with her "hard stuff" but her change-up was still accurate and effective. This challenged Taylor's pitch calling in a unique and difficult way early on as a catcher and started the cat-and-mouse game she would play with hitters for the rest of her career.

"Everybody in the stadium knew that the changeup is the only pitch that you should be swinging at because it's the only one that's not on the ground. So how can I use the yips or the wild pitch in the dirt to set up the changeup?" Taylor wondered. "Or do I just go change, change, change every pitch? That part definitely helped me in high school and then into college."

Taylor was Tatum's steady presence behind the plate and it pushed her to start focusing on skills like effective velocity, tunneling, and unpredictable pitch calling that would pay off as a pro.

As Taylor tried to pull Tatum out of the yips it also pulled something out of her. Diving in the dirt, getting hit by wild pitches, and the seams cutting her skin, Taylor could have been critical. But this was her twin who she's known since the womb and she wasn't going to let her own emotions get in the way.

"Who cares if you just threw through six balls in the dirt? So what? Keep going, keep going to the next one," Taylor said. "If they're being vulnerable, I have to be vulnerable. I don't want them to be on an island by themselves."

Taylor has never pitched; she's never stepped into the circle with all eyes on her but she was beginning to develop an empathy and connection that would never let a pitcher who worked with her feel alone.

THE GRIND

During Edwards' First-Team All-American season at Nebraska in 2014, a National Pro Fastpitch League (NPF) team played an exhibition game against the Huskers. Of the entire lineup, Edwards was the only college batter to make contact. She remembers fouling one off against Cat Osterman and then flying out her next at-bat. For the first time, she thought, "Maybe I could do this?"

After her senior season as the Division I Catcher of the Year, Edwards was drafted with the No. 8 overall pick to the Pennsylvania Rebellion in the NPF.

She signed a two-year contract for $5,000. In her rookie year, the team was 9-39.

"It was terrible," Edwards said. "But so fun at the same time."

The team made it a priority to do things together outside of softball. They would play sand volleyball, go to the movies, to the beach to "bring team chemistry and somehow keep us human and not have our record define us as humans."

Edwards said that if they didn't do that, she would have quit pro softball. She kept coming back to the grind because of the chance of postseason runs and the magic that only happens when a team pursues a championship. The best game of her career was still to come in that environment.

The Rebellion traded Edwards to the Chicago Bandits and then to the Scrap Yard Dawgs where in 2017 they competed for the NPF Championship. Edwards had spent the last couple of seasons working with renowned pitcher Monica Abbott. During Game Two of a three-game championship series at Louisiana State University, Abbott was not only the best arm but also the only arm trusted to pursue the title.

Edwards knew it would be the two of them every inning, every pitch, every game in the dead heat of summer.

"We knew the challenge ahead... but we're committing to one pitch at a time," Edwards remembered. "Once you execute it – ball or strike – take a breath, throw it back, take a breath again. Okay, what's the next plan?"

Edwards and her team won 2-0 to force Game Three which was held on the same day. A championship doubleheader, Edwards and Abbott came back out an hour later and did it all over again. Twenty-seven outs with a 5-2 score, they won the championship.

Just talking about it, Edwards still gets chills. It's the most mental exhaustion she'd ever experienced but, "I think that was the most fun, stressful, [and] best time catching in a battery situation I've ever had."

THE SACRIFICE

In 2016, Edwards tried out for the United States national team but didn't make the cut. As her pro career continued to flourish, Edwards joined Team USA in 2018 and helped the team win gold at the WBSC World Championship and USA Softball International Cup. The relationship she formed in the NPF with long-time national team ace Monica Abbott made her one of the solid batteries within the program.

With the Olympics on the horizon, Team USA narrowed down the roster they would take to Tokyo. Edwards learned she was one of 18 named to the 2020 Olympic team but was a replacement player. She was a part of the team leading up to the Summer Games, training with Team USA, and would be an available alternate if another player was injured.

Internally, Edwards knew her role was more than that.

"My role on USA for the Olympic year was to be the bridge between Aubree [Monroe] and Monica Abbott."

TAYLOR EDWARDS: SMALL DETAILS LEAD TO BIG LEGACY AS A CATCHER

Edwards knew Abbott well from their time together in the NPF and described her as direct, stubborn, and a little brazen at times. Monroe had a contrasting personality: passive and softer in her communication.

She wouldn't be suiting up to catch for Abbott but Edwards was asked to help prepare Monroe for the task.

"Putting my own feelings aside of like, 'Okay, I know I'm not going to play, I'm not going to suit, I'm not going to compete for a medal... but being able to push them and make them better and bridge their communication and connection."

It required Edwards to speak openly and honestly with Abbot and Monroe to help make them the best pair possible to win.

"That was probably one of the biggest things in my career that I had to deal with and it wasn't even for me – it was for other people – but it was also for USA. I did something for a whole country."

Abbott threw 20.1 innings to Monroe with a 0.00 ERA and 31 strikeouts throughout the tournament, including in the Gold Medal Game where they earned silver.

THE LEGACY

Intentional, intimate, and calming but also strategic and competitive.

That's what Edwards wants her teammates and particularly her pitchers to remember about playing with her. She used to say that she wants to be remembered as the best and nicest teammate but over time has realized "there's so much more than just two things."

"You could be the best teammate execution-wise, but you could be the [worst] person ever. You could be the nicest person but never play an inning," Edwards said. "I want to have a balance of consistent play, I want to execute, but I also want to do it the right way."

Edwards isn't done just yet. She started in the NPF playing for three different organizations then stuck around when her team went independent. She took a stand with the 'This Is Us' Softball team and competed for her country. She was a part of the inaugural season of Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball in 2020 and has played in every Championship Season with the league since.

With the launch of a traditional league on the horizon in 2025, Edwards feels she must see it through.

"It's all of these little building blocks to the next and I feel like this is my duty to see it through," Edwards said. "If I give up now knowing that that is next, it's like, well then why did I go through all of these other things?"

Maybe Edwards' natural personality fit her position perfectly or maybe, over time, her demeanor embraced the requirements of her position. More than likely, it's probably a little bit of both.

And while you may not notice her on the field her legacy as one of the best catchers in professional softball can't be ignored.

SASHEL & SHARLIZE PALACIOS' STORYBOOK SEASON

By Savanna Collins
August 15, 2024

Sashel and Sharlize Palacios are everything to one another. The pair of sisters are built-in best friends, sharing nearly all their life moments. But they'd never been one of the most coveted roles – teammates – until now.

With a five-and-a-half-year age gap, the two never quite lined up to play on the same team from rec and travel ball to high school or college. Sashel has been waiting for the moment to come knowing that pro ball was their chance.

"I can't wait until Sharlize is here," she'd say in the dugout for the past two Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball seasons.

Sharlize's college seasons were star-studded. She was an immediate starter as a freshman at Arizona and played three seasons there before transferring to UCLA. The numbers and accolades continued to climb; her senior year she was second on the team with a .366 average and had 57 RBIs and 20 home runs. Her career with the Bruins ended at the Women's College World Series but that wasn't it for Sharlize and softball. She was among 15 athletes selected in the 2024 AU Pro Softball College Draft.

The moment Sashel was waiting for finally arrived.

SASHEL'S CURTAIN CALL

With teams changing every week across the five-week season, they were bound to end up together at some point. What they didn't know was that Sashel would become a first-time captain and get to draft Sharlize herself.

Sashel is a veteran in pro softball, starting her career in 2018 with the Chicago Bandits of the National Pro Fastpitch League. She was an Olympian on Team Mexico in 2020, helping her national team qualify for the first time.

She's been with AU since its inception and her role within AU teams has fluctuated over the years. She was part of a notable battery with Danielle O'Toole who, with Sashel behind the plate, became the 2022 AUX Champion. On the other hand, sometimes Sashel has been a late pick in the draft, sharing time as a catcher or just a designated player in the lineup.

"I usually am more of a middle-of-the-pack, fly-under-the-radar girl," Sashel said. "I've finally come to a place in my career [where] I know what I do bring to the table and I'm just ready for my opportunity."

She had decided that 2024 would be her last year as a pro softball player and had gone in grateful for a chance to play with Sharlize. But this season was destined to be different.

Sashel was voted the Defensive MVP twice during Week One for how great of a game she called behind the dish. Then she was the third pick to Team Wallace in Week Two and the starting catcher for all three of those games. With a solidified spot in the lineup, she had more opportunities to hit.

Last season she only had six at-bats.

After six games this season, she'd logged six hits in 17 at-bats for a .352 average.

Her performances propelled her to fourth overall on the leaderboard and a captain for the first time in her career.

'WITH MY SECOND PICK, MY SISTER, SHARLIZE PALACIOS'

It only took until her second pick for Sashel to seal her and Sharlize's fate. Team Palacios in Week Three would feature the two sisters on the same team for the first time.

The draft process has always unnerved Sashel. She's likened waiting for your name to be called to playground games where you're standing as the last one left. She was determined that no one on her roster would feel that way.

Team Palacios traveled to Greenville and although they were slated to start the week on Wednesday at the Little League Softball World Series, rain delayed their game until Saturday, Aug. 10. The date couldn't have been more significant for the two. It's the second "heavenly birthday" for their late grandmother Lorenz Barajas, who passed away a year and a half prior.

Their grandmother was born in Sinaloa, Mexico, and lived most of her life in San Diego, California. She was traditional, deeply religious, and had a close bond with Sashel and Sharlize. Barajas didn't quite understand this softball dream that Sashel and Sharlize pursued so fiercely. Women playing sports, especially at the highest level possible, wasn't something she understood from her Mexican background. But through her love of Sashel and Sharlize she became their ultimate fan.

Barajas would be too nervous to watch their college games live, recording them on her TV and only going back to watch once she knew they'd won.

With their parents, Kiko and Soida in the stands — they'd flown in to surprise the girls — and feeling their grandmother looking down on them, Sashel and Sharlize stepped onto the field for the first time.

LINEUP: 4, PALACIOS – 5, PALACIOS

Sashel put them back-to-back in the lineup: Sharlize hit fourth and Sashel hit in the five-hole.

In their first game on Saturday, their team never fell behind on the scoreboard, putting up three runs in the first inning. Sis Bates drove in the game's first run with a double to right center field before coming around to score on a ground out by Sashel.

On Sunday, Sharlize launched a two-run home run in the top of the seventh inning to win the game. It proved to be the difference as it elevated Team Palacios to a 3-1 victory in the first game of Sunday's doubleheader at Parkway Bank Sports Complex.

Monday was an absolute slugfest. The team hit three home runs, including a grand slam from Sharlize to put up 13 runs. Team Palacios was a perfect 3-0 on the week; the first team to do so this year.

Both sisters are catchers and Sashel split time at the plate with Sharlize, switching the two of them between calling games and the designated player position. There's no competition between the two of them, no jealousy. They said there never really has been.

"Our support is so strong," Sharlize said. "When all is said and done with a game I have her to go home to and I have her to call and nothing that I ever do on the field can ever make her love me more or less. If I'm lost, Sashel is my compass." The beauty of their bond translated to the softball field.

A STORYBOOK SEASON

Sashel has finished 54th, 47th twice, and 34th on the AU Pro Softball leaderboard. This season she's in contention for not only a medal but possibly the championship. Going into Week Four in second place, she trails Gold Team Captain Amanda Lorenz by just four points.

But it's not about that. Sashel doesn't even care if she wins or medals.

Her goal in her final season was to enjoy the little details. Soak in every moment of being with Sharlize; take advantage of any opportunities she was given; and pour into her pitchers and teammates.

SASHEL & SHARLIZE PALACIOS' STORYBOOK SEASON

"I have to tell myself constantly float, breathe, and enjoy," Sashel said. "Before I would just rush into the box and not even hear my walk-up song."

Even at the end of Week One, Sashel said she'd be happy if she'd retired right then and there. She had no clue how much more was in store for her over the coming weeks.

"It's such a beautiful blessing that God placed in our life [for us] to be here," Sashel said. "And I can feel like my grandma is with us too... she's protecting us."

The Palacios sisters' story so far this season couldn't have been written better than how it's unfolded. All that was left was to tell it.

SARAH WILLIS SOAKING UP EVERY MOMENT WITH AU PRO SOFTBALL

By Bruce Miles
August 20, 2024

To watch Sarah Willis on a softball field is to see and feel the same joie de vivre, or the joy of life, she brings to the game, whether she's baffling hitters with her distinct pitching motion or taking her cuts at the plate as a hitter.

Willis, who made her professional debut in Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball's AUX competition this summer, is enjoying life during AU's championship season in Rosemont.

"I'm just having such a great experience, just getting to be able to be out here with so many people who I've looked up to throughout my whole life, from playing with Keilani Ricketts at AUX, who I've looked up to since I was 10 years old," Willis said after a recent practice session. "Now playing with Taylor McQuillin and Aleshia Ocasio and Odicci (Alexander), all these great pitchers, great hitters, great outfielders, great infielders, just multitude of people I've looked up to and getting to know them on more of a personal level, not just a fan of softball, it's been super cool."

Willis has a 3.00 ERA this season. She enters Week Five ranked 29th on the overall leaderboard.

This comes on the heels of a college career that saw her display the same positive traits at the University of Central Florida (UCF). Even so, she is assuming nothing, which accounts for her exuberant presence.

"I didn't think I was going to get to play softball after I finished my college season," she said. "Every day out here, I don't take it for granted whatsoever because you never know. I could not get asked back. I could get hurt, which would prohibit me from playing. So there's all these different things; outside factors that I can't control.

"I need to control what I need to control, which is how good my attitude is, how much energy I bring, and just go out there and have a good time. Whether I'm on the field or I'm in the dugout, I'm having the best time because it's so great to be around these great people, amazing players and to get to compete against them, too."

Willis' college career included pitching the first perfect game in UCF history on April 28, 2023.

"I think it was one of the best experiences I've ever had and definitely one of the best fielding games that I've ever had because I got so many balls hit back to me," she said. "It was an out-of-body experience, to say the least, because I didn't realize it until probably the fourth or fifth inning. I didn't say anything out loud while it was happening, and nobody was saying anything to me.

"I was glad. In the seventh inning, I was like, 'Oh, my gosh, OK. I've got to stay locked in. Everything's fine.' But my team really had my back that game, especially scoring a lot of runs and having a great defensive game as well. People were making great plays."

One thing Willis has brought with her from the college level to Athletes Unlimited is a pitching motion – not to mention a devastating changeup – that includes a distinct rocking motion with loads of deception.

"I kind of just made it up," she said. "There's no rhyme or reason to why I do my pre-pitch motion. But I'd say the reason my windup is that way is called trunking. It's hiding the ball. I have the ball in my glove as long as I can until I get to my K position. But I really like the way I pitch in the sense of me getting into my legs really hard because I'm not the tallest pitcher. I have to gather a lot of my energy. Using my legs is really important for me because when I use my legs I'm not even throwing hard, but I'm getting my body together to be able to throw good pitches at different speeds, not just one. Being able to throw multiple speeds."

The intrigue with Willis starts well before she throws a pitch in the game. Watch closely, and you'll notice that her first warm-up pitch comes not underhand, but overhand – and with conviction behind it. Given Willis' cerebral approach to the game, there's a method to what seems like madness to others.

"It's just getting my arm loose because I don't get to play catch like everybody else in between innings," she said. "I feel like sometimes it's hard for pitchers because you get into such a groove of just throwing underhand that it'll feel wonky to throw the ball overhand.

"If I get a ground ball back to me, something you see a lot of is pitchers run and toss it (to first base). So I do that one first pitch to get my arm loose. My coach used to say I do it to intimidate people, but I just do it for fun. Something fun to do. It gets me locked in with the catcher, and then I'm locked in to start throwing."

Willis is a threat with the bat, as well. In this day of designated hitters and designated players, it's not all pitchers who can help their team both ways. Willis relishes the opportunity to swing the bat.

"I love getting the opportunity for batting, outfield, and baserunning," she said. "Any extra things are super fun for me because it's helpful to the team, especially if I don't do my best on one side, I can make up for it on the other. I love hitting. It also helps me stay in tune with my pitching because you have to use your lower body for both of them. It's the main part. The swing is your lower body and pitching, as well. So I feel it's helpful to me because I'm always constantly moving my body.

"Keilani Ricketts was one of the first people I saw who was a hitting pitcher when I was younger. I was like, 'I can do that.' People are telling me pitchers can't hit, but I'm like, 'If I work hard enough, it's not even about being as good as others, you have to put yourself on top and work 10 times harder as they do because you have pitching and being able to be your best self at all of them.'"

Willis' good nature is underpinned by a strong work ethic, something that earned her respect at UCF. She said she was attracted to AU Pro Softball because its values match hers.

"One thing that attracted me was the caliber of competition," she said. "There are so many great people to play against and play with. I've been looking up to some of these people since I was a little kid. Getting to play against them and play with them and also just learning things from them, learning little tidbits or things they think can help me be better.

"What really attracted me was the amount of opportunities that people get to show that it's not just about softball — people posting about their experiences with the fans, the season-ticket holders, all of that stuff. It's really cool to see how big this league is becoming from just five years. They have multiple sports, too, so I feel it's such a great community. It's a great networking experience to be here because you meet so many people from different schools, who coach at different schools. There are so many different things. But I definitely have to say that the quality of competitiveness here is unmatched by some of the other leagues I've seen."

MUFFLEY GAINS FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON, OFF SOFTBALL FIELD AFTER OVERCOMING ADVERSITY

By Bruce Miles
August 21, 2024

This past May, Josie Muffley was hit by everything a person could possibly be hit with and still be left standing.

Not only is Muffley still standing, but she's thriving and feeling forever grateful to be playing for Athletes Unlimited Pro Softball.

Flashback to May. Within the span of a few days, Muffley's hometown of Portage, Michigan, was hit by a tornado and her house in Tallahassee, Florida, was severely damaged by a tornado.

"It started with my parents getting hit by two tornadoes," she said. "Being so far away and not knowing what was going on — cell phones were down — I had no way of really contacting my parents. That was scary. I just saw it on the news. 'Holy crap, my hometown got it.' I was sending prayers back to them, helping them out whatever way I could."

Muffley's parents were OK, but more storm clouds were gathering, literally and figuratively.

A former standout collegiate player at Florida State, Muffley lives in Tallahassee and works as an EMT.

"Tallahassee got hit by three tornadoes," she said. "I was finishing a shift on an ambulance, a 12-hour shift. I got off at 7 a.m. I got home. I let my dog out. Made some food. Lay in my bed. I think I took the first bite of my food. It sounded like somebody was outside on a megaphone saying, 'Hey, take cover. Some severe weather is coming in,' which was weird because I had never heard that before. Being an emergency responder, a first responder, I never knew that was a thing.

"So I kind of just dismissed it and started watching TV. Then I heard the explosions of the transformers right outside my window. The power went out. I was like, 'Maybe this storm is getting kind of bad.' I thought it was just severe weather. I didn't know a tornado was hitting us. So I grabbed my dogs — my dog and my roommate's dog. She was at the ACCs, so thankfully she wasn't home when it was happening. So I grabbed her dog and my dog and went in the closet. That's when I heard an explosion in my house. I didn't know what it was at the time because I was in my closet."

When the all-clear was sounded, Muffley emerged and surveyed the devastation.

"I started smelling something in the house," she said. "I thought it was insulation. I opened my bedroom door and looked out into the hallway, where my roommate's bedrooms are. And I saw daylight. I was like, 'Well, that's new. I don't remember a skylight being in my bedroom.' That's when I heard this loud hissing noise. I found out our gas line had exploded in our house. My house was filling up with gas.

"Thankfully I have some family friends who live not even a block away. They met me at the house. That's the first time I saw that insulation was all over the house, on my neighbor's house. A tree was on top of my roof that split our house in half."

Things got worse, and they had nothing to do with the weather.

Seeing it as her duty as an EMT to help others, Muffley went right back to work. She was in for another unpleasant surprise.

"I was living at a friend's house," she said. "My house was condemned, so I couldn't go in there and get some stuff. I was leaving and I didn't even make it a half-mile when my car just blew up on me. I made it to Walgreens and parked it there. I went back to my house to get my mountain bike, and that's when I found out, 'Oh, gosh, my bike's not here. Something isn't right.'

"I started checking around my house, and that's when I found out someone broke into the house and stole all my (championship) rings."

At this point, you couldn't blame Muffley if she thought, "What next?"

"Yes, there was a lot of that, but my Tallahassee community was more than helpful, really lifted me up," she said. "Being at work helped me forget about that. Helping the community out kind of took my mind off what I was going through because I thought my life was pretty crappy at that point. But being a first responder and seeing other people at their worst times really opened up my eyes to the perspective of, 'Hey, your life is not that bad. I'm still walking. It could have been a lot worse, and I should be thankful for where I'm at right now.'"

Thanks to what Muffley called "an amazing landlord," her house was repaired, and she's on the way to recovery. There are plenty of people for whom she's grateful, whether it was at home or with her softball mates.

"It was amazing," she said. "I am still trying to figure out ways to repay and thank people who have done it. The outpouring of love and people texting me or just giving me a hug was more than money that I needed at that time. I just needed some shoulder to lean on or cry on. That's where my softball and EMS communities stepped in big time."

BECOMING AN EMT

It wasn't necessarily for the love of adventure that Muffley decided to pursue what can be an adventurous calling of being an EMT.

Her own youthful fascination with the profession and a later near-death experience helped to inspire her to help others in need.

"I think I had a love for it," she said with a smile. "At a very young age, my mom called me a black cloud because we would go anywhere, we would go rollerblading, and someone would break their back or someone would break an ankle. I was very young, and we would watch 'Trauma: Life in the ER,' my mom and I. That's what I grew up watching."

That was a TV show, but things got all too real for Muffley a few years back.

"I was pretty close to losing my life in 2019, freshman year of college," she said. "That really opened my eyes because a paramedic saved me, and also a nurse. I was in a weight room. I had a seizure. They intubated me. I don't remember why they intubated me, but they did. When they originally intubated me, my airway was closing around the intubation tube, and they didn't know that.

"So when they extubated me, that's when my airway started to close, I pretty much couldn't breathe for three days — suffocating. That's when a nurse saw it on an X-ray. She truly believed me that, 'Hey, there's something wrong with this kid.' I was again intubated for seven days. I was in the ICU for a week and a half."

Things were touch and go for a few days for Muffley.

"It was just waiting for that swelling to go down," she said. "It was just a waiting game at that point. I do recall that my mom was on her hands and knees praying to God that I would live because my airway was that closed. They had an emergency respiratory team there. It was really, really bad, a scary time, but I have no lasting effects from it. Thank the Lord I'm still here. It was pretty close. I saw the afterlife, and that was something that will haunt me to this day, not haunt me, but it doesn't make me scared to die, in a way. That's how I was."

That experience gave her a new perspective.

"I see life in a different way now," she said. "I was given a second chance at life, so I take every day as a blessing to be here. It's a blessing to be where my feet are and to be able to put on my shoes and walk out and have fun on a softball field. So it's kind of a full circle, but a blessing in disguise. So yeah, it's what changed my life."

PERSPECTIVE IN SOFTBALL

Muffley is now a professional softball player after starring at shortstop for Florida State. She didn't take up the sport until she was 15 years old.

"I grew up playing any sport possible – hockey, soccer, lacrosse, baseball," she said. "I grew up playing baseball. My brother was in the minors, so we were kind of a baseball family. It was in my sophomore year of high school when the softball coach came up to me and said, 'You'd be pretty good at softball.' He's the one who got me to switch over to softball.

"I've enjoyed it and kind of stuck to it. I didn't take it seriously until my senior year of high school. That's when I was like, 'OK, I actually do enjoy this. It's something new. It's something fresh.' The rest is history, honestly."

Muffley was named to the 2023 AU Pro Softball All-Defensive Team during her rookie season. This season, she has seen more time on the bench, but she's making the most of the new challenge.

"It's been good," she said. "Not playing as much has given me an opportunity to kind of figure out who I am as a softball player and as a person, as well, connecting with other girls on the team, finding my new leadership position on the bench. Just seeing what I can do for my team has helped me grow as a softball player big time. I'm enjoying it. It's been fun. The workload is a lot, but I could be stuck on an ambulance right now for 12 hours. I'll take it."

Life's experiences have given Muffley a strong sense of perspective. It has helped her in her softball life, both as a player and as a person.

"As a player, I found out that there's a lot more than just being on the field," she said. "You can pick pitches and help your team out. You can observe a lot more on the field than you could if you are actually in the game because it's just so fast. Being on the bench, it's kind of slowed down a little bit. You get a bird's-eye view of the plays going on in positioning and all of that. I can help my team find different avenues to win. That's been a huge thing for me and my team.

"As a person, just accepting my role in being there to hug somebody who struck out or hug somebody who is down or is not speaking the way we should – positive self-talk. If I can be that helping hand or that shoulder to lean on for my team, that's kind of what I've accepted as a person, as well."
